INVITATION LETTER

Dear Professor Dr. Kholikov,

Serbian Institute of Occupational Health will hold the international occupational health conference on December 16th in Belgrade, Serbia. The conference will gather more than 200 specialists in infectious diseases, preventive medicine, international law and national security, public health specialists and will consist of talkings about postcovid challenges for global healthcare. The conference theme is «Global and national healthcare systems in Postcovid syndrome: challenges and threats».

As one of the staunch specialists in international law applicable to healthcare, we invite you to be our guest speaker during the morning plenary session of the conference and also to chair the afternoon plenary session on December 16th.

We appreciate if you could discuss the most important legal issues related to Covid, Postcovid healthcare challenges both nationally and globally and deliver a report on this important matter.

We hope you will be able to fit this event into your busy schedule. The participants and organizers will benefit a lot from your expertise on this topic.

If you have any queries, please contact the Institute at 00381113400-900.

Thank you.

Respectfully,

Prof. dr Aleksandar Milovanovic

Director of the Institute
