

International Scientific and Practical Conference "Modern Trends in the Development of Private International Law"

On October 9, 2019, the International Scientific and Practical Conference “Modern Trends in the Development of Private International Law” took place at the Institute of Legislation and Comparative Law under the Government of the Russian Federation.

The conference was attended by well-known experts in the field of private international law, judges and arbitrators of Russian arbitration institutions, representatives of the scientific community, professors of leading universities from different regions of Russia – Moscow, St. Petersburg, Yekaterinburg, Tomsk, Nizhny Novgorod, Novosibirsk, as well as from neighboring countries – Belarus, Kazakhstan.

The conference was moderated by the staff of the Institute – acting Head of the Department of Private International Law, Doctor of Law, Professor, Honored Lawyer of the Russian Federation V.M. Zhuykov, Leading Researcher at the Department of Private International Law, Ph.D. in Law T. P. Lazareva, Leading Researcher at the Department of Private International Law, Ph.D. in Law M.P. Shestakova.

The Deputy Executive Director of the Foundation for the First President of the Republic of Kazakhstan-Elbasy, member of the European Commission for Democracy through Law (Venice Commission of the Council of Europe) from the Republic of Kazakhstan, Doctor of Law Rogov Igor Ivanovich, addressed the conference with a welcoming speech.

During the conference 18 reports were presented on current issues of private international law: unification of international law and procedure, conflict of law issues of real estate, development trends of modern conflict of law in the field of intellectual property, ways of legal protection of parties to an international contract in the context of economic sanctions, the activities of international organizations on unification of private international law in connection with the development of information and communication technologies, transnational corporate regulation, conflict of law regulation of non-contractual obligations, problems of approximation of civil procedure law in the post-Soviet space, etc.

Significant attention was paid to issues of the practice of international commercial arbitration.

